

AROUND TOWN

LONG BEACH

SIGNAL HILL

Things to do in Long Beach: Earth Day celebrations, LB Record Fair, Civil Rights panel and more!

BY SIGNAL TRIBUNE · APRIL 16, 2025 · 7 MINUTE READ · NO COMMENTS

Lindsay Shaver, owner of the punk rock lifestyle retail store DeadRockers, looks through some of the vinyl presses that were made in collaboration with the shop on Oct. 10, 2023. (Richard H. Grant | Signal Tribune)

This week offers residents fun, creative and educational ways to fill their spring days ahead in Long Beach and Signal Hill.

neighborhood using basic film developing supplies. All supplies will be provided by Place LB (2172 Pacific Ave.), but attendees are encouraged to wear clothes they don't mind getting messy. Tickets are $20 and can be purchased through @lbcommunitymediaarts on Instagram.

Stephanie Flores hands a bottle of water and other essential groceries at the Norfside Long Beach Food Drive on Saturday, Oct. 1. The recipient's face has been blurred at the request of the organizers. (Emma DiMaggio | Signal Tribune)

Sunday 4/20

Supply Distribution for Unhoused Community: 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. Join Norfside LB Outreach for their monthly supply distribution for the unhoused residents of North Long Beach. Volunteers will prepare supplies, distribute items and build community with their neighbors. Sign up by messaging @Norfsidelb_outreach on Instagram to receive the location and more details. Free.

Cars n Coffee: 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. Come enjoy classic cars or show off your own (all makes welcome) at this car show at 366 Cherry Ave. Attendees can enjoy complimentary breakfast burritos and coffee while supplies last. Free.

Long Beach Record Fair: Noon to 5 p.m. This 21 and older event invites vinyl lovers to dig through crates from over 20 record dealers, participate in vinyl auctions and try food from local vendors at Alex's Bar (2913 E. Anaheim St.). Free.

Long Beach Taco Week: All day. Long Beach's inaugural Taco Week will run from April 20-27, offering specials from restaurants across the city, ranging from $5 to $15. See all locations and special menus online. Prices vary.

The neon lights and marquee of the Art Theatre of Long Beach illuminate the the sidewalks of 4th Street on Feb. 28, 2023.
(Richard H. Grant | Signal Tribune)

Monday 4/21

‘Wicked’: Times include noon, 3:30 p.m. and 7:15 p.m. The 2024 sensation “Wicked” returns to the big screen at the Art Theatre of Long Beach (2025 E. Fourth St.), with multiple showtimes from Monday through Saturday. Tickets are $13 for general admission and can be purchased online or at the door.